FRANKFORT, (Ken.) June 30. Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Hardin court-house (Ken.) -- June 21.
"We had one of the feverest hail storms in this county on Sunday the 17th inst. that has ever been in Kentucky fince my recollection; it commenced about eighteen miles below this place westwardly and passed in a narrow string eastwardly...The hail was very large, exceeding the size of a large walnut, and fell in many places in large bodies: it measured the day offer the flow. and fell in many places in large bodies: it measured the day, after the storm, in places where it had, drifted, fifteen inches, but was generally from three to four inches in depth. This storm, as you may expect did much mischief, deftroying almost every thing that was growing, fuch as corn, wheat, oats, &c. beating them to the ground; it also destroyed a number of fowls, birds, and mall animals, which were found dead | scourge of Europe. The absence the day after the storm subsided --- How far the storm has penetrated eastwardly I have not yet been able to learn."

Communication .---- The notorious RICHARD TOMLINSON, confined has reached the highest pitch. They in the jail and penitentiary house at every where prevent the people Frankfort, for having committed a rape on his own brother's daughter, did with the affiflance of Alexr. White, a convict fent from Mason county for horse stealing, endeavor to break out from their confinement between the hours of five and fix o'clock on Sunday the 24th of June, but by the previous arrangement of the keeper and resolute conduct of the watchman (then on duty) were fortunately prevented. The citizens of Frankfort and its vicinity being affembled at meeting when the alarm was given, discovered a very prompt and lively disposition to give the keeper and watchman every aid in their power.

NEW-YORK, June 21. Verbal accounts from Liverpool, flate that on the 18th of April, a report prevailed that the French were preparing to go against Denmark, and that the Danes had raifed an army of one hundred thoufand men to oppose them.

Extract of a letter from Natchez, dated May 19.

" A very heavy rain has lately fwent away all the bridges in the country .-Great damage has been done the crops. Property, including mills, cotton gins, flaves, cattle, horses, &c. has been destroyed to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars.

A letter from a person in St. Jago de Cuba, dated May 6, to a friend in this celebration.

The people convened at about 11 o'clock—The place was beautiful—A perpetual shade was cast over productive fource of wealth and functions. In addition for the same of the spanish inhabitants. In addition for the same of the same of happiness to the American people. | Hispaniola were daily making incursions on the shore, plundering and destroying the inhabitants. Apprehensions were to ferious of approaching diffress and blood-shed, that the white residents were preparing with all possible expedition to leave the place, the only probable means of faving their lives.

April 18.

By the Hamburg mail which arrived yesterday we learn, that a great part of Switzerland is in infurrection against the constituted authorities imposed upon that once happy country, by the common of the French troops was made the fignal of revolt. In the cantons of Berne, Soleure, Argeu, Fryeburg, &c. the temerity of the infurgents every where prevent the people from taking the oath of allegiance to the new constitution. In the night of the 24th ult. fome of the disaffected set fire to the castle of Wadenshwheel, on the lake of Gurich, and the last letters state, that the landemann, unable to refift the torrent, folicited the return of the French army. - So much for the boaft of the consular official scribe, of the happy and independent state of regenerated Helvetia!

April 20. We this morning were favored with a note from a gentleman who has just escaped from France, having left Dieppe on board an American vessel homeward bound Friday last, landed on the coast of Dorset from an open boat on Monday, and arrived in town yesterday. He states that the army encamped along the coast of Picardy have begun to manifest great discontent at the delay which has taken place respecting the invasion of this country, which they have been affured these several times in the course of fix months would certainly be put in execution at a given period. The middle of November was the first time men-tioned, the last week of January the se-cond, and the third the middle of March --- fince which the activity of the preparations has confiderably relaxed, except what regards the exchange of troops, above twenty battalions of which our informant affures us, were ordered into the interior during the period of his stay on the coast, which was above a fortNOTICE
